

The existing FGEIS for the Site, and the follow up memorandum prepared by the Applicant's engineer, addresses some of the potential impacts associated with a development at the Site, including such things as traffic, infrastructure, emergency services, and other impacts. Please refer to Exhibit VIII.C.1.c. for further details. The Applicant has been in discussions with, and will work with, the City of Rensselaer and other relevant agencies to address these potential impacts.