

At this time the Applicant is not proposing any additional supplemental tax payments. Additional tax payments would serve only to limit the capital investment in the gaming facility and would thereby limit the number of jobs at the facility as well as the overall quality of the facility.