Genting Singapore is recognized today as a leader in the gaming, entertainment and hospitality sector. Our flagship project, Resorts World™ Sentosa in Singapore, is one of the largest and most iconic destination resorts in Southeast Asia. Opened in 2010, RWS has dramatically altered the tourism landscape in Singapore and the region, and has contributed significantly to the local economy.

Resorts World Sentosa is home to the region's first and only Universal Studios theme park, a Maritime Experiential Museum, a world-class spa ESPA, a casino, luxurious accommodation in six unique hotels, the Resorts World Convention Center, celebrity chef restaurants, and specialty retail outlets. The resort also offers entertainment ranging from large-scale multi-million-dollar productions, concerts and performances, to public attractions such as the Crane Dance and Lake of Dreams.

The Marine Life Park, the world's largest oceanarium, opened its doors on November 22, 2012. Resorts World Sentosa held its Grand Opening ceremony on December 7, 2012.

Resorts World Manila (RWM) is the first integrated tourist hub in the Philippines that is fast shaping up to become the most exciting destination in the country.

Adapting the integrated resort concept behind the success of Resorts World Genting in Malaysia and Resorts World Sentosa in Singapore, RWM breaks new ground in the Philippines by combining lodging brands, restaurants, gaming facilities, entertainment spots and a luxury mall in one grand destination.

Asia's newest playground is located in Newport City, a modern live-work-play community and the first tourism economic zone in the Philippines, just across Terminal 3 of the Ninoy Aquino International Airport and adjacent to the Villamor Golf Course. RWM is home to three hotels: the five-star Marriot Hotel Manila, the value for money Remington Hotel, and its centerpiece, the luxury all-suite casino hotel, Maxims Hotel.

It also features the upscale Newport Mall which boasts of shops and boutiques for international luxury brands, high end cinemas, dining outlets, and the Newport Performing Arts Theater, a 1,500-seat venue for local and international artists and productions.
