The Players Club area is located in the grand lobby directly across the rotunda from the main entry doors to the facility. The Players Club has a total of six service stations available with one of the six stations used as a priority line for VIP members. The Players Club is 260 square feet that can only be accessed with a combination code to open the door. Please see number five on the illustration of the gaming floor included with the exhibits in this section to reference the location of the Players Club.
