

Exhibit VI.G

Exhibit VI.G - Names, Addresses and Experience of Directors and Officers

Traditions Resort & Casino, LLC

William Walsh, Managing Member

[REDACTED]

Peter Walsh, Member

[REDACTED]

Matthew Walsh, Member

[REDACTED]

Candace Jones, General Manager

[REDACTED]

Gaming & Leisure Advisors, LLC

Catherine A. Walker, President and CEO

[REDACTED]

Audrey Oswell, Chief Operating Officer

[REDACTED]

David E. Sheridan, Chief Financial Officer

[REDACTED]

Kirstin Lowry Sommers, Senior Vice President & General Counsel

[REDACTED]

Exhibit VI.G

Robert D. Chamberlain, Senior VP of Construction and Design

Paul F. Tjoumakaris, Corporate Vice President of Slot Operations

Liza Cartlidge, Vice President of Business Operations and Strategy Execution

Luther G. (Lou) Anderson, Director of Compliance

Matthew Roob, Executive Director of Financial Planning and Analysis

Greg G. Bechkos, Vice President of Marketing

Traditions Resort & Casino, LLC

William Walsh, Managing Member: William Walsh is a principal owner of a third generation family enterprise known as Walsh and Sons Construction, based in Broome County, New York. Starting off in residential custom homes, the enterprise has expanded into the commercial-design/build market and has orchestrated numerous development projects in the Southern Tier Region. In the past decade, Bill has been directly involved in the restoration and expansion of the former IBM Heritage Country Club into what is now a first class Resort and Conference Center known as Traditions at the Glen. He is also a member of the Homestead Development Group, which is currently undertaking numerous development projects in the local community. Bill serves on the boards of various local non-for-profit organizations and church groups.

Peter Walsh, Member: After graduating from Colorado State University in 2008, Pete started his career at Coscan Construction as a project engineer for high-rise condominium projects on North Miami Beach. He returned home in 2009 to contribute to the family businesses, Walsh and Sons Construction and Detekion Security Systems. He has since been instrumental in many local noteworthy construction projects including Jimmy Johns and Our Lady of Sorrows Church, and various security fence installation projects around the country. Pete sits on the board of Traditions Resort and has played a key role in the evolution of the Resort facility and community facing events, including the annual Wine and Pizza Tasting charity fundraiser, which has raised 10,000 a year for local non-for-profit organizations. Pete led much of the inspiration for Traditions Resort and Casino. He has ambitions to improve the quality of life for residents of the Southern Tier, and feels this project is a great opportunity.

Matthew Walsh, Member: After graduating from Cornell University in 2003, Matt started his career in the Affiliate business at MTV Networks. He then spent three years in Investment Management at Lehman Brothers before choosing to return home to contribute to the family business. He has since opened the Salt Sanctuary at The Spa at Traditions and contributed to various marketing and community engaging events at the Resort, including the annual Wine and Pizza Tasting charity fundraiser. Matt is excited to be making a positive impact in the community that he grew up in. He envisions Broome County as a new destination for tourism in the Southern Tier, a place where graduates from local universities will want to stay and contribute to our community.

Candace Jones: Candace Jones has been the Traditions at the Glen General Manager since 2007. Candace grew up in the Ithaca and Lansing areas and has worked in the Hospitality Industry for over 40 years. After attending Cornell University while working for their Department of Dining Services, Candace moved to Houston, Texas and managed several restaurants. After working as Director of Convention Services for Adams Mark Hotel, she opened and managed the food service for a premier retirement community. Candace returned to the area to be with family and became the Assistant General Manager of the Binghamton Regency (Now the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel). After spending 14 years with Vista Hospitality, Candace joined the team at Traditions at the Glen as General Manager. Candace has built a TEAM at Traditions that has made it the premier Boutique Hotel and Conference Center in the Southern Tier.

Exhibit VI.G

Gaming & Leisure Advisors, LLC

Catherine A. Walker, President and CEO: Cathy Walker joined Seneca Gaming Corporation in 2008 as Chief Operating Officer and was named president and CEO in 2010. Under her leadership, the company has achieved a standard of outstanding operational performance, which has become the hallmark of the company's operational philosophy. Among the company's many notable achievements of the past few years is the completion of more than $220 million in construction projects across its portfolio of properties. Seneca Gaming Corporation is today widely viewed across the gaming industry as a model of operational efficiency, responsible management and practical investment. A respected leader, she has become an active member of the Western New York business and philanthropic community, and serves on a number of boards and committees, including the Community Foundation of Greater Buffalo, the Niagara Area Foundation, and the Buffalo Niagara Partnership, the region's largest business organization. Since starting her casino operations career nearly 20 years ago, Ms. Walker has held executive positions with Trump Entertainment Resorts, Harrah's Entertainment, and Players Hotel Casino. She has led successful gaming properties in New York, New Jersey, Indiana, and Louisiana. Prior to her operations career, Ms. Walker served 13 years as Assistant General Counsel for the New Jersey Casino Control Commission. She is a graduate of Rutgers University and Rutgers Law School.

Audrey Oswell, Chief Operating Officer: Audrey Oswell was named Chief Operating Officer at Seneca Gaming Corporation in 2013. She works closely with the senior management team and the corporation's Board of Directors in managing the business and operational aspects of Seneca Niagara Casino & Hotel, Seneca Allegany Casino & Hotel and the new Seneca Buffalo Creek Casino. Ms. Oswell has more than 30 years experience in the gaming industry and has served in top executive leadership positions, including President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer at several gaming properties across the country. Prior to joining Seneca Gaming Corporation, she was the Chief Gaming Officer at the Atlantis resort in the Bahamas. Her impressive career has also included senior management roles at Resorts International and Caesars in Atlantic City and the Cosmopolitan and Fontainebleau Resort in Las Vegas. Throughout her career, Ms. Oswell has participated in raising more than $1.4 billion for property acquisition and expansion plans, and has achieved a successful record of driving revenue through an integrated approach to operations. She has earned degrees from Temple University and Drexel University.

Exhibit VI.G

David Sheridan, Chief Financial Officer: David Sheridan has served as the company's Chief Financial Officer since 2008. Throughout that time, he has helped the company cultivate an exceptional reputation with the financial community, which it maintains to this day. The company's exceptional performance during the depths of the economic recession and its ability to successfully refinance $500 million in bonds in 2010 underscore the regard in which Seneca Gaming Corporation is held. Mr. Sheridan provides oversight and direction for an organization with assets totaling more than $1 billion with annual revenues of more than $600 million, and departments responsible for more than $300 million in annual purchases, and payroll in excess of $110 million annually. A Certified Public Accountant, Mr. Sheridan formerly served as Chief Financial Officer for the Oneida Indian Nation of New York and its enterprises, including Turning Stone Resort and Casino. Throughout his career, he has provided key leadership in the negotiation and issuance of more than $1.6 billion in the high yield markets, tax exempt markets and through bank syndications. The Native American Finance Officers' Association honored Mr. Sheridan with its Chief Financial Officer of the Year award in 2011. Prior to his work in the gaming industry, he spent seven years with PricewaterhouseCoopers, one of the nation's leading financial consulting services companies, providing assurance and advisory services to commercial gaming. He is a graduate of LeMoyne College in Syracuse, New York.

Kirstin Lowry Sommers, General Counsel: Kirstin Lowry Sommers was named General Counsel at Seneca Gaming Corporation in 2012. She oversees all legal processes, policies and actions on behalf of the corporation's Board of Directors, the company and its three casino operations, including contracts, risk management, compliance, and regulatory oversight. Ms. Lowry Sommers has a background in complex commercial contracts, Native American legal issues, civil litigation, among other matters. In addition, she has experience in development and sustainable initiatives. Ms. Lowry Sommers was among the first of relatively few attorneys in the region to have earned the prestigious LEED® Accredited Professional qualification. In addition to her work with Seneca Gaming Corporation and in maintaining her own private practice, she previously worked in an Of Counsel capacity with the Buffalo law firm of Hurwitz & Fine and as a litigation associate with Nixon Peabody. A recognized leader in the field, Ms. Lowry Sommers has counseled numerous clients in the areas of American Indian law and policy. An enrolled member of the Seneca Nation of Indians, she is a graduate of the State University of New York at Fredonia and the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law.

Robert Chamberlain, Sr. Vice President of Design and Construction: Rob Chamberlain has played a leading role in engineering and construction projects around the world for the past 35 years. His work with Seneca Gaming Corporation began in 2005 with the construction of the 26-story hotel tower at Seneca Niagara Casino, and he has helped the Seneca Nation of Indians leave an indelible stamp on the landscape of Western New York. Through his leadership, Seneca Gaming Corporation has been able to complete development projects totaling hundreds of millions of dollars, often completing the work ahead of schedule and under budget. These projects have included the construction of the permanent Seneca Allegany Casino & Hotel property, as well as a second hotel tower at that property, construction of the new Seneca Buffalo Creek Casino, major renovations of the main gaming floor, hotel rooms and buffet at Seneca Niagara Casino & Hotel, and the development of the award-winning Seneca Hickory Stick Golf Club. Mr. Chamberlain is a registered Professional Engineer, whose world-wide resume includes projects across the United States, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. In addition to his work with Seneca Gaming Corporation, his gaming industry experience includes over seven years managing multiple casino, hotel, hospitality and infrastructure projects at Foxwoods Resort Casino. Mr. Chamberlain is a graduate of the University of Canterbury in New Zealand.

Exhibit VI.G

Paul Tjounakaris, Corporate Vice President of Slot Operations: Paul Tjounakaris is a recognized slot operations executive who joined Seneca Gaming Corporation in 2013. As Vice President of Slot Operations, he oversees the company's slot machine strategy and its robust offerings of more than 6,500 slots across its three properties. Mr. Tjounakaris began his gaming industry career in 1979, and has successfully opened and operated several slot operations at numerous casino properties, including the Seminole Gaming and Hard Rock Hotel casinos, Borgata Hotel Casino, Caesar's Hotel Casino, Dover Downs Hotel Casino and Casino Windsor. While with Seminole Gaming and Hard Rock Hotel Casinos, he was responsible for the overall gaming operations and strategic direction of seven gaming properties owned by the Seminole Tribe of Florida. A pioneer behind several significant slot machine technology developments, Mr. Tjounakaris is adept at utilizing technology, slot floor layout and game offerings to help maximize slot revenues and expand market share. In addition to his experience in the United States and Canada, he has assisted on slot development projects in Europe and Africa.

Liza Cartlidge, Vice President of Business Operations and Strategy Execution: Liza Cartlidge brought more than 30 years of gaming industry experience to the Seneca Gaming Corporation management team when she joined the company in 2011. As Vice President of Business Operations and Strategy Execution, she has played a leading role in creating a strategic plan for the corporation in helping to strengthen its internal processes, prioritize high impact capital investments and realize substantial cost savings. Ms. Cartlidge served on the Buffalo Creek Community Development Fund Advisory Committee, which provided grants totaling $1 million for infrastructure, beautification and community improvement projects in the neighborhood surrounding Seneca Buffalo Creek Casino. She has built a distinguished casino management career, serving in executive positions at both the property and corporate levels for multiple gaming properties in both New Jersey and

Exhibit VI.G

Nevada, including Harrah's Reno Casino Hotel, Harrah's Atlantic City Casino Hotel, Showboat Atlantic City, Harrah's Las Vegas, Harrah's Entertainment Nevada Division, Harrah's Atlantic City and Caesars Atlantic City.

Lou Anderson, Director of Compliance: Since joining Seneca Gaming Corporation in 2009, Lou Anderson has served as the company's chief regulatory compliance officer at its three casino properties. He is the company's primary liaison with the Seneca Gaming Authority, the independent regulatory agency which oversees compliance and regulatory matters for all of the Seneca Nation's gaming operations. In addition, Mr. Anderson oversees issues relative to corporate governance, investigations, and the Seneca Nation's gaming compact with New York State. He is a former Vice President of Legal Affairs with Harrah's Entertainment, where he served as the chief legal officer for the company's land-based and riverboat casinos in New Jersey, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, and Iowa, as well as Native American gaming facilities in Kansas and North Carolina. He also served as counsel to the Casino Association of New Jersey, which included the drafting of casino legislation and regulatory reform initiatives. Mr. Anderson also served as the Vice President and General Counsel at the Showboat Casino Hotel in Atlantic City. A practicing attorney for more than 30 years, he graduated from West Chester State College and Dickinson School of Law.

Matthew Roob, Executive Director of Financial Planning and Analysis: A strategic and financial analyst experienced in financial markets and management consulting, Matthew Roob has been with Seneca Gaming Corporation since 2011. He and his team analyze and evaluate the operational performance of all three Seneca Casinos properties, plus Seneca Hickory Stick Golf Club. Understanding the importance of each area of the company's extensive operation, Mr. Roob also directs the budgeting team for all three casinos, 12 restaurants, two hotels and the golf course under the Seneca Gaming Corporation umbrella. In addition, he provides marketplace analysis, in order to identify competitors and potential opportunities. Mr. Roob has provided financial analysis and strategic planning services to gaming industry companies for more than 20 years. At Keystone Gaming Group and Merit Management, he initiated and implemented operational changes at a large tribal casino, resulting in higher EBITDA on lower revenue. Mr. Roob also directed market research and financial modeling for tribal casino projects, and led an operations-improvement project for a multi-property casino operation in Latin America. He also held management positions at Empress Entertainment and KPMG Consulting. Mr. Roob holds degrees from Kenyon College and the University of Chicago.

Greg Bechkos, Vice President of Marketing: Greg Bechkos is responsible for creating and directing the marketing vision for all Seneca Gaming properties. Mr. Bechkos and his team manage patron outreach and engagement activities to all casino patrons through advertising, direct mail, database marketing, promotions, events, entertainment, interactive marketing, and other initiatives designed to strengthen the Seneca Casinos brand and to build and maintain customer loyalty. This coordinated, multi-faceted approach has helped Seneca Gaming Corporation maintain prominence in its market at a time of increased competition for customers. Under his leadership and stewardship of the company's multi-million dollar marketing budget, Seneca Gaming Corporation has been able to increase the effectiveness of and guest response to his properties' direct marketing programs, and enhance the digital presence of its properties, while streamlining costs. An industry veteran with extensive experience in the U.S./Canada market, Mr. Bechkos spent more than ten years at Fallsview Casino Resort and Casino Niagara, most recently serving as Director of Marketing Services for the $1 billion casino resort complex. He is a graduate of Niagara College.

Exhibit VI.G